Chaesub Lee is the Director of ITU’s Telecommunication Standardization Bureau. Prior to his election to this post in 2014, Dr Lee served as Chairman of the ITU standardization expert group for ‘future networks and cloud’, ITU-T Study Group 13. Dr Lee has contributed to ICT standardization for over 30 years, specializing in areas such as integrated services digital networks, global information infrastructure, Internet protocol, next-generation networks, Internet protocol television, and cloud computing. Dr Lee holds a PhD in Multimedia Engineering.

Frans Vreeswijk took over the function of IEC General Secretary and CEO on 1 October 2012. Prior to joining the IEC he worked for almost 30 years for Philips in the Netherlands, Austria and the USA, notably in research, healthcare and consumer electronics. Vreeswijk was President of the IEC Dutch National Committee (NEC) and a board member to the Dutch National Committee (NEN) to ISO (International Organization for Standardization). He served on the IEC Council Board and SMB (Standardization Management Board) and represented the Netherlands in CENELEC (the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization).

Vreeswijk holds a Master of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from the Delft University of Technology.
Sergio Mujica
Secretary-General, International Organization for Standardization (ISO)

Sergio Mujica joined ISO as Secretary-General in July 2017, having spent 7 years at the World Custom’s Organization (WCO) as Deputy Secretary-General. Prior to working at the World Customs Organization, Mr Mujica spent 15 years working for the Government of Chile with the Ministry of Agriculture, the Ministry of Economic Affairs and as the Director General of Chile Customs. A Chilean national, he has a law degree from the Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile and a Master’s degree in International Law from the American University in Washington DC.

Pablo Gustavo Farías
Minister of Government and State Reform of the Province of Santa Fe

He was born on July 24, 1969 in Buenos Aires. From the age of four he lives in the city of Santa Fe, province of Santa Fe. In 1994 he graduated as a lawyer in the Faculty of Legal and Social Sciences of the National University of the Litoral.

In the exercise of his profession he devoted himself to Public Law, carrying out, at the same time, different training and improvement courses in that branch of Law. In his political career, he stands out as having been a legal advisor to the Frepaso bloc in the Chamber of Deputies of the Nation in the period 1995 - 1999.

In 1999 he was elected councilor of the city of Santa Fe, a position he held until completion of his term in 2003. From 2003 to 2007 he served as legal and technical advisor and secretary of the Civic and Social Progressive Front block in the Chamber of Deputies of the province of Santa Fe.

He was Minister of Social Development of the province of Santa Fe in the period 2007- 2011. Currently, he is Minister of Government and State Reform of the Province of Santa Fe.